Wilkins

Jan. 17, 1924.

Dear Myra Belle:

The Books of the Third Edition have arrived; and I sent yours and Paul's the first thing.

As I have assumed you wish these extra copies for your pupils, it is only proper to give you the teacher's commission, which I am very glad to do, and you can have the Books at $1.20 each.

They are still going strong!

With love and best wishes, and hoping to see you before long,

Always Your Friend,